

The Colorado Police & Fire Athletic Association values you as a customer, and we respect your right to online privacy while using our web site. Our Privacy Policy is shared with you because we are committed to protecting your privacy while using our site.

Information collection and use

Your personal information is stored in secure operating environment that is not available to the public. Your personal information is only accessible by selected association directors who have access to selected databases, and are further protected by ID and password requirements.

We never sell or share any personal information

In order to become a CPFAA competitor or volunteer, a user must register and give certain contact information; we never sell or give away this information. It is only gathered to identify and verify eligibility of the competitor or contact information for volunteers.

Registration is not required to enter our site.

Payment information collected

Your credit card information is not collected on line or stored by the Colorado Police & Fire Athletic Association, credit card payments go through a separate payment collection company with similar privacy policies and their own secure web site.

Contact us

If site users have any questions or suggestions regarding our privacy policy,

info@cpfaa.org